

TELLING THE NEWS WITH PICTURES

CLOTHING SEIZED by garnishment proceedings, Mildred Harris, former wife of Charlie Chaplin, faces scantily clad vaudeville act. J. W. Rubenstein, her former manager, brought action, demanding back salary. (N. Y. A.)

101 YEARS OLD. Mrs. Frances Levesto is glad long skirts have come back. She admits first hundred years are hardest as she starts second year of second hundred by sweeping yard of home in Grant City, Staten Island. (N. Y. A.)

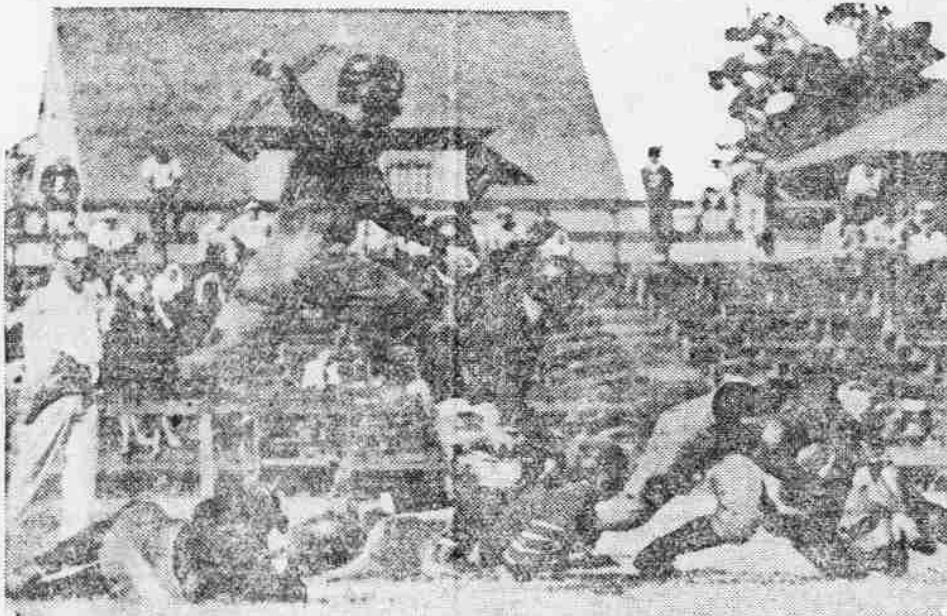

PARIS DIVORCE DECREE is sought by Mrs. Caroline Morton Potter, wife of president of Guaranty Trust Company of New York, William Chapman Potter, according to members of American colony there. (N. Y. A.)

SENATOR WILLIAM B. MCKINLEY was chairman of American delegation to Inter-Parliamentary Union meeting in Europe. (Int'l News Reel.)

TOMB OF "NUBY." Central Park, New York, lion cub, "But," you say, "this is Duchess, cub's mother." True, but so is first sentence, for Duchess ate Nuby. (N. Y. A.)

MUCH TOUTED FLYING FISH had nothing on this gob, Halfback Owsian, of U. S. S. Mississippi eleven, in at finish as Amor Galloway scores again for University of Southern California, blanking sailors, 20-0. (Int'l News Reel.)

SIR PAZHAMENHERI SUNDERAM SIVASWAMY AIYER. K. C. S. I., Indian delegate to League of Nations Council, arrived in New York as guest of Canadian Government while en route to Pacific coast, from which he sails for India. (N. Y. A.)

GOVERNOR JAY MORROW, of Panama Canal Zone, pictured leaving White House after conference with President. (N. Y. A.)

WINDS OF WINTER will no. harm little Joseph Hudson, for his mother, Mrs. Lillian Hudson, of New York City, will give him away so he can have comfortable home. (N. Y. A.)

"GENTLEMAN JIM" CORBETT poses for peaceful photograph at his home at Bayside, Long Island. (Int'l News Reel.)

ANTONIO S. DE BUSTAMANTE, judge of Permanent Court of International Justice at The Hague, has arrived in America. (Int'l News Reel.)

INFORMAL PHOTOGRAPH of Prince Albert of Schleswig-Holstein, at left, arranging day's hunting with gamekeepers on his estate at Primkzau. (Int'l News Reel.)

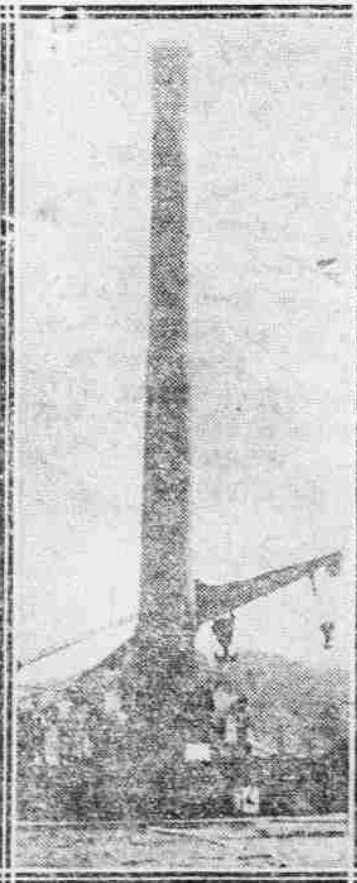

MISS MARY HLAVKA was selected as one of four prettiest girls in New York City in beauty contest. (Int'l News Reel.)

HAT OF PURPLE PANNE with plume introduced to Paris by Mlle. Marie Lohr. (Int'l News Reel.)

FIRST WORLD CIRCUIT ship was reproduced for celebration of fourth centenary of Juan Elcano, explorer, at Guala, Spain, port from which he started around the globe in 1522. (N. Y. A.)

MONSTER SIXTEEN-INCH GUN, on harbor carriage, for United States coast defenses, fires 2,340 pound projectile thirty miles. It is greatest gun in world. (Int'l News Reel.)

THEY DO LOTS OF THINGS IN CALIFORNIA, but it remained for Charles Gay and his wife to open lion farm, raising twenty-two cubs in one year, and treating them like household pets. (N. Y. A.)

SCHOOL NOT PLAY FOR THESE LADS—These students at Northwestern University, Chicago, take education seriously. At left, Willmore Kendall, thirteen-year-old Oklahoma wonder, is not only carrying on four year course, but is assisting blind Carl Bostrum, in center. Joseph Fullerman, at right, is taking law and earning $5,000 yearly conducting orchestra. (Int'l News Reel.)